and regional artists. See amazing and unique designs using paint, mosaic, fabric and mixed media.

The butterflies can be viewed during regular store hours listed in this brochure. The exhibition is an extension of the business district beautification that began with the 2008 Oakland Ave. streetscaping project.

VOICE AUCTION SUN., AUGUST 30 • 4:30-7:30 P.M. HUBBARD PARK LODGE

After the event closes in August, the butterflies will be sold in a public voice auction at Hubbard Park Lodge on Sunday, August 30, from 4:30-7:30 p.m. Proceeds from the auction will benefit the Shorewood Foundation, supporting Shorewood's culture, community celebrations and recreation since 1964.

Bid on your favorite butterfly BEFORE the auction by filling out a bid sheet at any of the butterfly locations.

Many thanks to all of our sponsors for their generous support of this unique public art project. For more information, visit www.shorewoodwi.com.
